

Safety Check Report

Initial Exposure Snapshot

This reflects responses to six OSHA-critical areas commonly cited in small general-industry operations. It is not a full safety audit; it is a signal.

SECTION 1 — RESULT STATUS

NO-GO — Exposure Likely

Your responses indicate gaps in areas that are frequently cited. This does not mean failure. It means the system is not fully in place.

At this stage, clarity is more important than assumption.

SECTION 2 — QUESTION BREAKDOWN

01	Do you have a written Hazard Communication program and can your team locate the SDS for every chemical on site without delay? 29 CFR 1910.1200	Yes — Confirmed
02	Are forklift operators currently certified and are daily pre-shift inspections consistently documented? 29 CFR 1910.178	No — Not in Place
03	Do you have a written Lockout/Tagout program with documented annual inspections for each energy control procedure? 29 CFR 1910.147	No — Not in Place
04	Are machine guards in place on all equipment — and have none been removed, bypassed, or modified? 29 CFR 1910.212	No — Not in Place
05	Are damaged ladders removed from service and tagged before they are used again? 29 CFR 1926.1053	No — Not in Place
06	Are safety training sessions documented and can you produce records for the past 12 months for required PPE and equipment training?	Yes — Confirmed

SECTION 3 — WHAT THIS SUGGESTS

This result usually indicates:

- missing or incomplete programs
 - lack of documentation
 - unverified training
 - exposure that has not yet been reviewed

SECTION 4 — WHAT THIS DOES NOT SHOW

This check is based on self-reported answers. It does not evaluate:

- condition of equipment
- quality of training
- actual behavior on the floor
- depth of documentation

It identifies where to look first.

SECTION 5 — RECOMMENDED NEXT STEP

What Comes Next

A walkthrough or documentation review provides:

- a clear picture of what is exposed
- a written report of findings
- a prioritized list of what to fix first
- documentation that holds under review

Pricing is straightforward and quoted up front; there are no retainers or long-term contracts.
